

Claims Hickenlooper Trying To 'Smear' AEC

Lilienthal Says Methods Un-American

Washington, May 30—(AP)—Boiling mad, David E. Lilienthal today accused Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) of conducting an un-American "smear" campaign against the work of the atomic energy commission, of which Lilienthal is chairman.

Taking the gloves off at a news conference, Lilienthal declared Hickenlooper's charges of gross mismanagement were couched in language "calculated to arouse fear, uneasiness, fright and ultimately panic."

"Here are charges that are so grave as to undermine the confidence of this country and the people of western Europe in the principal security enterprise of this country—the atomic energy program," he said.

Calls For Ouster

Hickenlooper, member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee, has called for Lilienthal's ouster on grounds of "incredible mismanagement." He has charged waste and "misplaced" emphasis in the commission's work, has pointed to the loss of a quantity of uranium-235 at a Chicago AEC laboratory and the award of an AEC scholarship to a communist student.

Hickenlooper plans to go before the joint congressional committee tomorrow to demand that he be permitted to confront Lilienthal with what he says is proof of the charges.

Commenting on Lilienthal's remarks today, Hickenlooper said: "This is a very serious matter not to be tried out by newspaper barages and self-praise or self-serving declarations but must be examined in an orderly way upon an examination of the facts."

"I shall produce the facts without histrionics or theatrics." In reply to Lilienthal's protests that such charges as Hickenlooper's threatened to deal a "death blow" to the atomic program by damaging the morale of atomic students, Hickenlooper said:

"No one has injected criticism of the scientists into this matter. That is a Lilienthal injection." Guilty Before The Trial

Lilienthal likened the manner in which Hickenlooper made the charges May 22 to being found guilty before a trial or an indictment and called it "probably the most wholesale aspersion on 60,000 persons." (This is the number engaged in the atomic program.)

He said that Hickenlooper, the former chairman of the joint congressional committee, has made specific criticism of various AEC activities from time to time. But he added in response to questions that Hickenlooper did not make his "grave" charges to Lilienthal, the commission or to the president before making them public May 22.

The AEC chairman said that much more is at stake in the inquiry than "just a political scuffling match" or "just giving bureaucrats hell."

"What is concerned here is not just the Atomic Energy commission, not just myself or Senator Hickenlooper, or even the congress, but the whole people of this country and the people of western Europe who look to this country for such security as there can be in the state of the world today."

"The country has been led to believe that something was very fundamentally wrong in the atomic program," he said. "If it turns out that what was meant is that there is a difference of opinion between Hickenlooper and the commission as to the best way to manage, or as to policy, then the country will have a right to know that the commission has been playing with like a football."

Hoover Says Many U.S. Employees Unnecessary

Washington, May 30—(AP)—The government could "accomplish exactly the same purposes" with 10 percent fewer civilian employees, if agencies from merger or abolition, President Herbert Hoover said today.

Savings to taxpayers, which he has previously estimated at an annual $3,000,000,000 or $5,000,000,000, Hoover said in an interview published by the magazine U. S. News and World Report.

Hoover said he based his figures on reports of research "task forces" of the commission on organization of the executive branch of which he is chairman. The body has sent to congress 19 bulky volumes of reorganization recommendations.

A $200,000 cut in federal personnel would require no wholesale firings, Hoover said. He added it could be accomplished through normal turnover, which now runs $500,000 a year.

While congressmen generally are "enthusiastic" over government reform, Hoover stated, each has "little vested interests" in his district which want exemption from the proposed wholesale overhaul.

Every government bureau, he said, has the backing of "some sort of citizens' association whose interests lie in promoting it." These bring pressure on congress to protect the percent fewer civilian employees, if agencies from merger or abolition, the former president said.

Only public opinion can force the needed reforms, he declared—"if the public insists and demands it, then the plans will be realized."

German Commies Ratify People's Congress Charter

Berlin, May 30—(AP)—The people's congress ratified a Soviet-style constitution which it hopes will serve all Germany today and chose communist fugitive Gerhart Eisler as a member of the government.

Western officials in Paris where the foreign ministers council is meeting said the action apparently was Russia's reply to western proposals to join east and west Germany in a federal democratic government under the Bonn constitution.

The 2,000 delegates chose a 22-man delegation to the Paris conference. It will support Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky in the Paris talks, though communist speakers admitted it was doubtful in the Big Four would recognize the delegates.

The People's Congress was chosen two weeks ago in an election in the eastern zone at which about a third of the voters cast "No" ballots. However, about a fourth of the delegates had been named by communist organizations in western Germany to give color to its claim to represent all Germany.

Eisler, who has been called No. 1 communist agent in America, was one of 400 chosen from a single list of candidates to a People's council which will act as a shadow government. Eisler who jumped bail in the United States and stowed away on the Polish liner Batory, escaped extradition in England after he was taken off the ship by British police.

The 52-year-old communist is free and has been given a travel permit by the British to enable him to return to Germany. He was listed as a professor from Leipzig University where he is scheduled to take a teaching job.

World Honors War Dead And Prays For Lasting Peace

By The Associated Press
Many Americans at home and abroad paused during their enjoyment of the Memorial Day holiday yesterday (Monday) to pay homage to those who gave their lives for their country and to pray for lasting peace.

Near the tomb of the unknown soldier, the center of the nation's observance, Senator Tydings (D-Neb) called on the nation to dedicate itself to "world peace with freedom and justice for all."

Tydings, chairman of the Senate Armed Services committee, said America must be so strong there never need be any future unknown soldier.

President Truman, in proclaiming an hour of prayer for U. S. war dead, had called on his fellow citizens to "appeal to Almighty God for help in turning the steps of the world to the paths of permanent peace."

The chief executive spent the Memorial Day weekend with a few close friends cruising on Chesapeake Bay in the presidential yacht. He planned to be back at his desk this morning.

The holiday was marred by the usual toll of violent deaths. Traffic accidents alone claimed a total of 1,000 lives.

Prague, Czechoslovakia, May 30—(AP)—The Czechoslovak press bureau said today the regional national committee in Hradec Kralov has ordered compulsory registration of all young men.

The agency said district national committees in the Hradec Kralov region, about 65 miles east of Prague, must submit weekly evidence lists of all cases.

"If birth does not occur within the time determined by the doctor or midwife, investigation will be started for cases where there is suspicion of a criminal act," the report said.

Indianapolis, May 30—(AP)—The boys who wore the blue in the war between the states will meet for the last time here Aug. 28-Sept. 1.

Last summer the aging veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic voted at their meeting in Grand Rapids, Mich., to make this year's national encampment the last. Indianapolis was the site of the first G. A. R. meeting just after the war.

Lt. Gov. John A. Watkins of Indiana is general chairman of arrangements. He expects possibly five of the few survivors of the union armies to attend the encampment.

The 1949 Indiana legislature appropriated $5,000 for expenses of the national meeting and the State of Indiana is official host.

Indiana's last GAR member, John C. Adams of Jonesboro, died there last Feb. 7 at the age of 104. He served as a drummer boy in the war.

Fort Knox, Ky., May 30—(AP)—The armored force dedicated a museum of World War II armored equipment here today in memory of Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., and his widow stole the show from the brass hats.

GOP Plans Voluntary Health Insurance Bill

Russia Blasts Hopes Of United Germany

Paris, May 30—(AP)—Soviet Russia tonight blasted hopes of agreement at this council of foreign ministers on merging east and west Germany under one government.

Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet foreign minister, turned down as a "dictate" the proposals of the three western powers for a federal democratic government under the Bonn constitution.

An American source said Vishinsky attacked the proposals in principle and in detail and refused even to consider them as a basis for discussion.

The American, British and French ministers in their replies made it plain they considered the Vishinsky charges so sweeping as to leave no room for compromise.

Most observers felt that the only hope of any agreement here now was some working arrangement for reviving east-west German trade and solving the Berlin dilemma.

Saturday the three western ministers made a series of proposals calling for a federal government under the west German Bonn constitution to which East Germany could accede under democratic guarantees.

They also proposed a four-power occupation statute limiting authority of the powers and conferring self-government on the Germans; limitations on Russia's industrial and reparations policies in eastern Germany; and abolition of the veto in a new four-power high commission which would replace the military governors.

Vishinsky said the Germans did not want a federal state but a centralized state. He asserted a federal government was against the principles agreed upon by the powers at Potsdam in 1945, and would dismember Germany.

He declared Russia had a responsibility to the population of the eastern zone and that this population is "well represented by the People's Congress."

Estes Park, Colo., May 30—(AP)—Ralph Helstein, a national union leader, contended today that "the heralded labor victory at least November's election, to this time, has produced no benefits for the working people."

Helstein is president of the United Packinghouse Workers of America (CIO), which opens its sixth annual convention in the Stanley hotel here tomorrow.

In a report prepared for the opening session, Helstein said the "81st Congress follows closely on the record of its dismal predecessor."

"Broadened and more intensive political action work is needed. The November election victories were not enough. Organized labor must complete the job it has started."

The union represents 500,000 members in this country and Canada. About 500 delegates are here for the convention, the chief purpose of which is to map new wage and contract steps for the coming year.

Designed To Provide For All Equally

Washington, May 30—(AP)—Nine members of Congress today proposed a new, voluntary health insurance plan designed to provide the same care to the poor and well-to-do, at a cost scaled to reach person's income.

The bill, intended as a substitute for President Truman's compulsory insurance plan, will be introduced tomorrow by two senators and seven representatives, all Republicans.

The sponsors, who said the bill would avoid "the errors of state socialism," are: Senator Ives (NY) and Flanders (VT) and Reps. Clifford P. Case (NY), Fulton (Pa), Hale (Me), Herter (Mass), Javits (NY), Morton (Ky), and Nixon (Calif).

Whole Plan Voluntary
The whole plan would be voluntary. People could subscribe or not as they choose. Doctors, hospitals and state could join or stay out.

A subscriber would pay in 3 percent of his income, up to 5,000. The sponsor figure most of the cost would be met by the subscriptions—which would average $114 per year per family.

Deficits would be made up by federal and state governments. The maximum cost for the federal government is estimated at $300,000,000 the first year and about $850,000,000 four years later.

The Truman plan, on the other hand, is estimated by its backers to cost about $6,000,000,000 a year. To provide medical, hospital and other services for some 120,000,000 Americans the administration plan calls for payroll taxes and contributions out of general tax receipts. The payroll taxes would be three percent, split between workers and employer, to income up to $4,800 a year.

Built On Local Plan
The new Republican substitute made public today would be built around local, voluntary plans something like those in which around 35,000,000 people already are enrolled—plans like those of the Blue Cross, unions, cooperatives.

But the backers say they would get away from the disadvantage of flat-rate premiums that put present plans out of the reach of millions of people.

Each state would have to pass a law authorizing its participation. A state health council would split the state into regions under control of local people.

The regional authorities would figure out normal cost of a "yardstick" program covering such things as doctor services in homes and offices, preventive medical care and hospitalization. Any plan operating in the region and providing yardstick benefits would get from the state, with federal help, the difference between the payments by subscribers and the estimated cost.

A local plan could cover more or less than the yardstick. In that event, subscribers would pay more or less than 3 percent of incomes up to $5,000.

The bill also provides for the use of federal funds to train more doctors and nurse, and to build more hospitals and health service centers.

U.S. Investigates Knifing Of Seaman

Mobile, Ala., May 30—(AP)—Federal authorities here reported today they were investigating the knife slaying of a Eureka, Ill., seaman aboard the freighter SS Fairhope at Salonika, Greece.

The FBI reported that Wayne J. Wooley, 18, was killed last May 5 while the vessel was in port at Salonika. His body was returned to Mobile yesterday aboard the Fairhope. Funeral services were held today.

FBI agent James D. Good said Seaman Camelo Trinidad, 29, of Brooklyn, N.Y., was being held in jail in Salonika and will be returned to Mobile for questioning in the case.

NOTED PROFESSOR DIES
Columbus, O., May 30—(AP)—Dr. Elmer G. Horton, 82, a retired child specialist and professor emeritus in pediatrics at Ohio State University, died today. He had been ill for some time.

Kaiser's Ace Spy, F. Von Rintelen, Dies In London

London, May 30—(AP)—Capt. Franz Von Rintelen, a German master spy and saboteur in the United States in World War I, died a peaceful London suburbanite today.

Once the Kaiser's No. 1 cloak and dagger artist, he was credited with destroying 32 munitions ships. He blamed his capture by Allied intelligence on the bungling of Franz Von Papen, German military attaché to the United States and later Hitler's ace diplomat.

He lived the last days of his 72 years in a quiet London suburb. He collapsed in a subway station early today and died soon after in a hospital.

Von Rintelen went to Washington in 1915 ostensibly as a diplomat, but actually to spend his time placing pencil-shaped time bombs in the holds of ships bound for Europe with munitions from the United States.

British intelligence finally trapped him after a series of fires and explosions along the New York waterfront. A young British girl in the intelligence service in Washington broke the code by which he communicated with Berlin. The girl worked through a secretary in the German embassy.

He was Dr. Neil E. Gordon, 67, a chemistry professor who until a year ago headed the department at Wayne University here.

Police said he apparently was despondent over ill health. Three policemen tried unsuccessfully to prevent Gordon's leap.

Patrolman Edward Fulton said he noticed the man standing on the hotel's roof. He hailed two other officers in a squad car and the three made their way to the roof. One officer was within a few feet of Gordon when he jumped.

Renown Educator Plunges To Death From Hotel Roof
Detroit, May 30—(AP)—An internationally known educator plunged 13 floors to his death today from the roof of a fashionable hotel in near-downtown Detroit.

Foot-Loose Horse On Trestle Makes Trains Detour

Waukegan, Ill., May 30—(AP)—Several Northwestern trains had to be detoured over a bridge trestle today because a horse was in the way.

The horse dropped all four legs through the ties while being led across the bridge by his rider, Seymour Breakstone of Camp Logan Road, near Waukegan.

Breakstone called the park guards, who in turn notified the sheriff's office. A tow truck was sent out. The horse was slipped under the horse and he was lifted free. He was uninjured.

Meanwhile, southbound trains were detoured over the northbound track while the rescue was underway.

The mishap occurred on a bridge running over a small creek a mile north of the Dunes Park entrance.

Three Persons Shot Down After Brawl In Arcade

Philadelphia, May 30—(AP)—A hail of bullets fired from a speeding automobile today cut down a woman and three teen-age youths on a street in the heart of Philadelphia's Italian section.

Police said the shooting followed a fight between two groups of boys at a penny arcade.

Police identified the wounded as Anthony Marimaro, 18, who suffered bullet wounds of the left temple and neck. His condition was described as fair.

Frank Menna, 17, bullet wounds of the chest. His condition is critical. Menna is a nephew of Philadelphia Councilman Louis Menna.

Vincent Fulginiti, 17, at least four bullet wounds of the legs. His condition is good.

Mrs. Louise Pinto, 39, bullet wound of the right thigh.

Hill was in the club, in which there were about 100 others, someone's wife and daughter, were asleep in a room, the sheriff related, with widely scattered showers.

KEEP AN EYE ON THAT URANIUM

We don't like to make a mountain out of an ounce of Uranium-235. But the case of the missing atomic material does not appear to reflect credit on the Atomic Energy Commission.

To be sure, six-sevenths of the lost U-235 has been recovered and the search for the other seventh is still going on, hopefully. Even if that seventh is never found, nobody can use it to blow up one of our cities. It would be useful, however, in chemical and physical research.

Here's the record of the case:

On Sept. 16 last year, roughly an ounce of uranium was recorded as part of a shipment placed in a vault at the Argonne laboratory, an atomic research unit near Chicago.

Nearly five months later, on Feb. 8 this year, this material and its container were found to be missing from the vault. Intensive search was begun.

The AEC's Chicago office was notified Feb. 14 and the Commission started another inquiry. When AEC's Washington office was informed is not fixed exactly, but a congressman says it was six weeks after the 14th.

On March 23, 48 days after discovery of the loss the FBI was called into the case. A month afterward Senator McMahon of Connecticut, head of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, learned of the matter in a secret report apparently withheld from other committee members.

Meanwhile, careful analysis of processing wastes at the Argonne unit turned up six-sevenths of the missing material. Laboratory officials expect to find the rest the same way.

Commission spokesmen are confident no theft was involved. McMahon says the FBI is satisfied espionage played no role in the mystery.

The joint congressional group nevertheless has undertaken its own independent investigation. This move seems to us thoroughly warranted.

First of all, it is hard to excuse the several delays acknowledged by AEC in reporting the uranium loss to higher levels, especially to the FBI.

Second, no one has explained yet how material kept in a container in a vault could turn up in processing wastes. And the original container has not been found.

The amount of uranium involved is admittedly small. Still, Bernard Baruch's plan for world control of atomic materials calls for rigid inspection that would account for every gram. It would make allowance only for tiny processing losses. In the present case, there could be no allowable loss because the material had been stored in a vault.

The AEC's materials accounting system hardly looks fool-proof. Officials say they make periodic inventory checks. Yet in this instance no check was made from mid-September last year until this February.

By the testimony of our scientists, U-235 holds great power both for life and for death. We may be greatly enriched by its most minute quantities. We don't believe this case should encourage any return to military control. We do believe, though, that we have a right to ask the AEC for a near-perfect stewardship over every enterprise associated with atomic energy.

St. Louis Minister Speaks At College Baccalaureate

Characterizing the baccalaureate service as "one of the great hours which punctuate life like commas, making us pause to understand it better and evaluate the real things," Dr. Wesley H. Hager, pastor of Grace Methodist church in St. Louis, addressed MacMurray college graduates Sunday morning on the topic "The Dimensions of Life."

Dr. Hager reminded his listeners that Jesus said, "You must be perfect," and that God expects our lives to show some progress in our striving toward that ideal. "Then how small we measure the perfect life? Not by length of years, possession, worldly standards of success, or even happiness."

"The criterion in its symmetry—the symmetry of the vision of redeemed humanity or City of God in which St. John gloried; the length, the breadth, and the height were equal."

"In the perfect life, length is the thrust forward to fulfill all its talents and powers, to have a purpose so that each day's toil works toward a goal. But length alone can be hard, cruel, brutal—witness the purpose of a Hitler, or of a nation bent on selfish imperial ends."

"Life must have equal breadth, which is the outward reach of love and sympathy for others, the understanding that we are all part of a family. Both child and nation must learn that life is not a solo, and must try to leave a trail of influence that is warm, sweet, and good. Gandhi's was such a life, and so is Albert Schweitzer's."

"Even length and breadth, however, are insufficient without height, which is uprightness toward God. Without God there is no ethics, no brotherhood, for all morals and love are rooted in Him. Lack of height, which makes so many lives partial and imperfect, is reflected in our society; for society can be only what we make of it by our own individual lives."

"Thus," the speaker concluded, "your task is to keep certain aim, to make a contribution to our generation, and to love and serve God."

Sharing in the worship service were President C. P. McClelland, Dr. Frank Marston of Grace church, and Rev. J. W. Collins of Centenary. The MacMurray choir, Henry Busch directing, and Wilbur Sheridan, organist, provided the music.

Baccalaureate Service Held For JHS Seniors

"Humor, a focused life, the ability to take defeat and success, and a belief in God—that is the stuff it takes to make life check, especially if you wish to live well."

"The Stuff It Takes" was the subject of the inspiring baccalaureate sermon delivered Sunday evening by the Rev. Clair E. Malcomson, pastor of the First Baptist church, to members of the 1949 graduating class of Jacksonville High school.

The services were held in Grace Methodist church, with Miss Carmen Covey, organist, playing the processional and recessional. The Rev. Frank Marston gave the invocation, which was responded to by the senior octet.

Speaking to 176 seniors and their guests, the Rev. Malcomson stated, "To make a go of life, one must be able to muster considerable moral stamina and draw from inexhaustible spiritual resources. The baggage, or stuff, you will be taking with you in your life will include first of all, a sense of humor, the capacity which enables you to laugh as heartily at jokes played upon you as those you play upon others, to welcome criticism and be able to smile."

"Secondly, sense of destiny, you must have a clear sense of your own destiny to give meaning to your existence. Having discovered a focus for your life and a noble one," the speaker declared, "you will find it an antidote to temptation. It will not be your ambition to gain your objectives by fair means or foul, but honesty of methods employed will rule the day."

Rev. Malcomson went on to ask, "What kind of stuff does it take to keep our life focused in the hour of success? Recently three men of note have taken their own lives, and it is also true that many who haven't the stuff it takes to keep life focused in the hour of success are battling with conflicting loyalties. The use of our opportunities, material wealth and personality traits brings peace of mind and real satisfaction when all are focused toward the noble and the good."

Milligan Speaks To Graduates Of ISD

The eighty-sixth commencement exercises of the Illinois School for the Deaf were held in Bowen Auditorium on the school campus Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock before an audience of 800 friends and relatives.

The principal speaker of the afternoon was William Milligan, superintendent of the Wisconsin School for the Deaf, Delavan, Wisconsin. Mr. Milligan was formerly associated with the Illinois School for the Deaf as supervising teacher before going to Wisconsin. Both his father and grandfather were prominent in the education of the deaf.

Mr. Milligan spoke on the subject "After Graduation—What of the Future." In speaking of the future, he used the erection of a tent to illustrate the planning of a future life. The center pole must be belief in God, respect for the church of your choice, and faith in your fellowman. Over the pole is draped the tent, which protects us from the elements. To round out the tent, stakes are driven... the first stake is called Honesty, the second, Persistence, the third, Loyalty, and the fourth, Charity.

Give Watch To Cloud

After the presentation of Diplomas, Kenneth L. Wilson, President of the Teachers' Association, presented to Daniel T. Cloud, superintendent, on behalf of the Association, an engraved wrist watch as a memento of Mr. Cloud's 20 years service to the Illinois School for the Deaf.

6 Deaf Youths Hurt In Car Wreck After ISD Commencement

Six young men, all of the Chicago area, who attended commencement exercises at the Illinois School for the Deaf here Sunday afternoon, were injured Sunday night at 9 o'clock when their car overturned four miles south of Lincoln on U. S. Route 66. In the car were several boys who had graduated earlier in the day.

The condition of three of the six was believed to be serious. All were taken to a Lincoln hospital.

The three hospitalized were William Brown, 25, of 619 N. Nobel Ave., who suffered cuts about the face; Bruno Franco, 18, of 5646 W. 64th St., suffered a shoulder injury, and his brother, Sam, 14, had cuts and bruises about his legs. The other passengers were Albin Niesluchowski, 34, of 2653 W. Division St., the driver, William Roberts, 22, and his brother, Harry, 19, both of 7046 Everhardt St.

Deputies Joe Scanlon and Floyd Kennedy, of Logan county, who investigated the accident, stated the six, had just graduated from the state school at Jacksonville and were returning to their homes in Chicago. Niesluchowski was attempting to pass another car going in the same direction and the authorities believe he pulled too close to the other car and sideswiped it in the attempt to pass.

The car, a 1942 Chevrolet, rolled about 225 feet and landed 50 feet off the highway in a wheat field. The car was completely wrecked. State Police Officers Raymond Bernis and Gerald Behrends, who also investigated the accident, stated they were attempting to locate the driver of the other car which failed to stop following the accident.

Man Suffering From Amnesia Taken To Home

Relatives arrived in the city Sunday evening to aid Clarence Last, a 50 year old farmer of Ridott, Stephenson county, Ill., who is believed to be a victim of amnesia. Last was found wandering around the automobile district on South Main street Saturday afternoon.

Questioned by members of the police department, the man was unable to furnish either his name or address. He complained of a headache.

After being taken to the city hall, the stranger was examined by Dr. T. O. Hardesty, who said he showed no evidence of drinking. Dr. Hardesty said the man was suffering from amnesia, probably from the results of a cerebral injury of some standing.

Acting on information revealed by his driver's license, police contacted his relatives at Ridott, Mrs. Last said her husband had experienced recurrent attacks of amnesia.

His 1947 Ford sedan was found parked in front of the LaCrosse Lumber Co.

Mrs. Last, her son Clarence Last, Jr., and a friend, LeRoy Cox of Oregon, Ill., arrived Sunday evening and accompanied Mr. Last to his home.

Bill Holland Wins Speedway Classic With Record Time

Moose And Girls Drop Sunday Night Games

Jacksonville teams were at least consistent as they dropped both ends of Sunday night's high school football games. Both the Jay-Cee girls, losing to Granite City 7-3, and the Moose girls, dropping a 7-2 tilt to Springfield, allowed that lucky "7" to creep into the score-column, but on the wrong side of the page.

Fans saw a total of 15 errors compiled by all four teams. The Granite City girls made the fewest, registering only one bobbie. The local Moose outfit was high on the miscellany list with 6 errors while the Jay-Cee and Springfield men hit a happy medium with a total of 4 misplays apiece.

The Jacksonville women were treated to some very effective hurling by the Granite City twirler, Zinn. She allowed only 6 hits, keeping them nicely scattered. Zinn had given up only 2 safeties and a single run going into the final chapter. She ran into trouble when four Jay-Cee hitters connected for hits to tally 2 runs. However, she regained her composure before too much damage was done and rallied to put out the fire.

Lauder was the losing Jay-Cee flinger.

The Jacksonville Moose softballers were unable to solve the offerings of Springfield's pitcher, Chuck Ramsey in time to do much good in the feature performance of the evening. They connected for only 5 singles and totaled but a brace of runs while the Springfield batsmen slammed local moundman Russ Young off the hill in the third and drove on to hit Tettters, his relief, consistently to compile their 7 markers.

This game marked Russ Young's "Svan Song" to local softball. He is moving to Rockford.

Ramsey fanned 8 Moose chubbies and walked home as he spun the winning ball game.

Tonight's Memorial games will see Myers Bros. entertaining the Alton Esquires at 7:15 p. m. and the local Implement Dealers tending with the Alton Tower Towers in the 8:45 tilt.

Pirates Beat Cubs 8-6 After Losing First Game 8-5

Pittsburgh, May 30 — (AP) — The National League tail-enders, Chicago and Pittsburgh, divided a doubleheader here today before 38,089, the biggest Forbes field crowd of the year. The Cubs grabbed the opener 8 to 5, and Pittsburgh took the nightcap 8 to 6.

Starting pitcher Rip Sewell of Pittsburgh suffered an injured thumb in the first game, and three other hurlers failed to stop the Cubs. In the second game, Ralph Kiner hit his 11th homer of the year for the Bucs.

Kiner's homer, along with a triple in the first game extended his consecutive hitting streak to 12 games. Six homers were smashed out during the twin bill, four by the Pirates. Wally Westlake, Pirate outfielder, got a round tripper in both contests. Phil Cavaretta and Roy Smalley hit for the circuit in the first game and the sixth homer of the afternoon came off Buc catcher Ed Fitz Gerald's bat.

The Cubs scored six runs in the sixth inning of the first game. Cavaretta started the rout with his homer and two more runs scored on Frank Gustine's triple. Bob Rush coasted to this third victory against five defeats.

Cal McLish, a former Pirate, started the nightcap but left the game in the first inning after four runs had scored. Three of them came on Kiner's 11th homer.

The Pirates nearly blew the second game in the ninth when the two runs. With the tying run at the plate, Bob Muncrief came in to relieve Chesnes and got Emil Verban on an easy roller to end the game.

Yanks Blast Nats 13-3 After Losing First Game 6-2

Washington, May 30 — (AP) — The New York Yankees pounded four Washington pitchers for 20 hits and a 13-3 victory in the second game of a Memorial day doubleheader today, after Washington took the first one 6-2.

A crowd of 33,081—biggest throng at a baseball game here since 1941—watched the two teams split.

Gene Woodling, with three doubles and a single, and Bobby Brown, who contributed three singles and a double, paced the Yankees' nightcap attack on Sid Hudson, Ray Scarborough, Mickey Haefer and Dick Welteroth.

Allie Reynolds received credit for the win, his fifth, although he required relief by Joe Page.

The Yankees surged into a 2-0 lead in the second inning of the first game when Cliff Mages singled, crossed Tommy Henrich and Yogi Berra, but Washington tied the score when Sam Dente singled across two runs in the Senators' fourth.

Tommy Byrne's wildness got him in trouble in the fifth when he walked Al Kozar and Clyde Vollmer with two out. Eddie Yost doubled and Eddie Robinson singled to give the Senators a 5-2 lead and they made it 6-2 off Cuddles Marshall in the seventh when Ed Stewart walked, took second on a passed ball and scored on Vollmer's single.

Walter Masterson, who checked the Yankees with six hits, won his third game.

Qualifying Tests For U.S. Open Golf To Be Held Today

New York, May 30 — (AP) — The major portion of qualifying tests for the National Open Golf tournament will be staged tomorrow at 28 scattered centers.

A total of 1,266 golfers, pro and amateur, will shoot for 117 berths in the field which goes after Ben Hogan's undefeated title June 9-11 at the Medinah country club near Chicago.

Trials have already been held at Honolulu with two players qualifying.

The sectional centers, with the number of entries and places allotted include: Chicago (179-17); Indianapolis (38-3); Des Moines (24-2); Detroit (18-11); Minneapolis (12-1); Kansas City (62-5); St. Louis (23-2); Akron, Ohio (14-8); Cincinnati (53-5); Milwaukee (35-3).

Brooklyn Beats Giants 2-1 Then Lose Nightcap 7-4

New York, May 30 — (AP) — After losing the opener of the Memorial day doubleheader to Brooklyn, 2-1, when Jackie Robinson cracked a 13th inning home run, the New York Giants, sparked by homers by Johnny Mize and Whitely Lockman, bounced back to win the second game, 7-4. A crowd of 53,053 watched the standoff which left the two teams still in a three-way tie with Boston for first place.

Ralph Branca's streak of seven straight victories came to an end in the nightcap as the Giants pounded which included homers by Lockman him for six runs in two innings and Mize. Each came with one out, though he needed help from Andy Clint Hartung gained the decision when he pitched no-hit ball for the last two and two-thirds frames.

Duke Snider hit a homer with Peeewe Reese aboard in the seventh and a single by Robinson helped send for Hansen.

Robinson's seventh homer broke a 1-1 tie in the 13th of the opener as Dodger relief pitcher Ervin Palica bested Dave Koslo, Giant fireman.

Rex Barney, who had a 1-0 lead until he wild pitched Whitely Lockman home from second with the tying marker with two out in the ninth, had the edge on Monte Kennedy, Giant starter, up to that time. He had allowed only three hits to seven for Kennedy.

The Dodgers' lone run off Kennedy, Giant starter, up to that time. He had allowed only three hits to seven for Kennedy.

The Dodgers' lone run off Kennedy was the result of Barney's single, Reese's sacrifice and Carl Furillo's single in the eighth.

Phils Win Second 6-5 After Braves Take Opener 7-3

Philadelphia, May 30 — (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies and Boston Braves split a doubleheader today, the Phillies winning the nightcap 6-5 in 10 innings after the Braves won the opener 7-3 before a Memorial Day crowd of 21,933. Del Ennis tripled with one out in the extra inning and scored the deciding run of the second game on Andy Seminick's fly.

In the first game Clint Conatser led an 11-hit Boston attack with a single, two doubles and a home run. Jim Russell also had a home run and drove in three runs while Elbie Fletcher had three hits.

Bill Voiselle held the Phillies to one hit for the seven innings and got credit for the win although he was knocked out of the box in the eighth and Nelson Potter came to his rescue.

In the second game the Phillies knocked the Braves expensive southpaw rookie Johnny Antonelli out of the box with four runs in the first on hits by Richie Ashburn, Gran Hamner, Eddie Waitkus, a pass to Del Ennis and Stan Hollmig's two bagger. They added another off Bob Hall in the second on a pass to Hamner and a double by Ennis.

The Braves picked up a tally in the fifth and four in the ninth to tie the score. But Tannis' long triple to right in the tenth gave the Phils the winning marker.

Cards Sweep Memorial Day Doubleheader From Reds 8-6, 9-2

St. Louis, May 30 — (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals took full advantage of ineffective work by Cincinnati pitchers to sweep a Memorial Day doubleheader, 8 to 6, and 9 to 2, before a crowd of 29,000. Howie Pollet stopped the Reds with five hits in the second game after the Cards had rallied to wipe out a five run deficit in the opener.

The Reds jumped on Red Munger for five runs almost before the holiday crowd was settled in their seats. But six pitchers who followed Munger in relief held the Reds to a lone run while the Cards drove Starter Johnny Vandermeer from the hill with a 5-run blast in the sixth and then pushed over the winning runs on Harry Gumbert in the seventh.

A two run homer by Pinch Hitter Hal Rice capped the big rally. Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter pounded out three hits apiece and Marty Marion batted home four runs. Ted Wiiks, the Redbirds' ace reliever, was struck on the right forearm by a drive off Ted Kluszewski's bat in the seventh and is expected to be out of action for ten days.

Pollet, gunning for his second straight shutout, pitched hitless ball until the seventh and had the Reds blanked until the ninth. Five errors, three by Shortstop Virg Stallcup, contributed to the top-heavy score. Slaughter and Red Schoendienst drove in three runs apiece. Slaughter poled a two-run homer in the fifth. It was his fifth of the season.

The double victory gave the Cards a record of seven wins in their last eight games.

Snead And Palmer Go Into Finals Of PGA Tourney

Richmond, Va., May 30 — (AP) — A 200-foot wedge shot for an eagle by Sammy Snead and a national tournament record by Johnny Palmer today made golf history and brought the two into the PGA finals.

Palmer, a grim professional from Badin, N.C., gave Lloyd Mangrum one of the worst beatings the great Niles, Ill., star ever had. Mangrum was never ahead during the 31 holes of their semi-final match in the 31st PGA tournament and Palmer won 6 and 5.

The Jim Ferrier-Snead match which ended in a 3 and 2 victory for Snead was the opposite. Ferrier, a giant Australian with a 360-degree swing, led through most of the match.

The finals tomorrow—Snead vs. Palmer—will be over 36 holes at the 6,677-yards of fairways at Richmond's old Hermitage course. The winner will get a $3,500 check.

Snead's perfect wedge shot for an eagle two on the 358-yard third hole was hit from 200 feet away.

Just 97 strokes were needed by Palmer to cover 72 holes, an average of 3.59 strokes a hole. His card by nine holes was 32-34-31-37 which left him ten strokes under par. Regulation figures for Hermitage are 36-35-71.

Mangrum, until this tournament the leading prize money winner in golf, trailed Palmer 2 down after the morning round and through the first four holes in the afternoon. After those four holes Mangrum went to pieces, one of the few times such a thing has happened to golf's methodical man.

Red Sox Take Two Tilts From A's 4 To 3 And 10 To 2

Boston, May 30 — (AP) — Boston's Red Sox moved back into second place in the American league today by twice whipping the Philadelphia Athletics, 10-2 in the opener, and coming from behind for a 4-3 decision in the closing contest which was decided by a lusty Ted Williams' homer. Williams lashed his game winning blow with Johnny Pesky on base in the eighth inning to the great delight of 36,133, the largest Fenway park crowd of the season.

The Sox put the first game out of the reach of the A's when they scored six times in the sixth inning, four of the runs counting on outfielder Al "Zeke" Zarilla's grand slam homer.

Al Parnell, slight, stylish southpaw, won his seventh victory in the second game.

Williams had gone hitless in six official times at bat before he blasted his homer, a tremendously high clout that landed in the Boston bullpen some 400 feet from the plate. His drive scored Johnny Pesky who had walked.

The A's scored twice in their eighth, to go ahead 3-2, on a walk to Eddie Joost, Wally Moses' line double to right center, a sacrifice and Sam Chapman's line drive single over second base.

Then came Williams' blast, his 12th of the season and his 40th and 41st runs batted in this season.

Score shouldered Phil Marchildon started for the Athletics in the opener but was lifted after facing only two batters without throwing a strike.

He hit Dom DiMaggio with the first pitch and walked Pesky on four straight pitches. Bobby Schantz, little left hander replaced the swarthy Canadian and he remained inaction through the sixth when the Sox erupted for their six markers. The score was 4-2 in Boston's favor going into that inning.

Joe Dobson, who gave up 10 hits, was the winner in the opener and his record now is 9-3. An oddity of this game was the complete absence of strike outs.

Indians Win First Twin Tilt; Beat Browns 2-1, 5-0

Cleveland, May 30 — (AP) — The Cleveland Indians won their first doubleheader of the season and fifth game in last six starts by defeating the St. Louis Browns 2-1 and 5-0 before 33,809 fans today.

Rookie Mike Garcia hurled 6-hit ball for his third victory in the nightcap after Gene Bearden limited the Brownies to five safeties in the 12-inning opener. Ned Garver and Cliff Fanning sustained the losses.

Both games were low-hit battles and the only fireworks of the day came in the sixth inning of the windup when Larry Doby and Jim Hegon cracked homers. Hegon smashed his four-master with Ray Boone on base. The Tribe got only seven hits off three Brownie twirlers in the second game.

Kenny Keltner's fly ball with two out and the bases loaded in the 12th scored Thurman Tucker with the payoff run in the opener. Tucker had walked and was moved to third on Joe Gordon's hit and run single. Doby was then passed intentionally.

Mike Garcia allowed only one pass today. He struck out five and never was in serious difficulty.

Both Bearden and Garver were in continuous hot water in the late innings of the 12-inning opening game thriller.

Garver made a valiant try to win his own game with a double with two out in the 10th, but he died on second. In their half of the inning the Tribe failed to score Thurman Tucker from second with two away.

White Sox Come Back To Win 2-1 After 3-2 Loss

Chicago, May 30 — (AP) — Two unearned runs on veteran shortstop let Detroit take the opener of a holiday doubleheader, 3 to 2, but the Chicago White Sox tapped Hal Newhouser for a 2 to 1 victory in the nightcap behind the six-hit hurling of lefty Bill Wight.

Wight took charge of his fifth win of the season on a yield of six hits and one walk before a crowd of 40,530 people. A first inning triple by Steve Souchock, replacing the injured Gus Zernial in left field, supplied the first Sox run.

Another extra-base sock off Newhouser, and a seventh inning double by Cass Michaels, got the winning run started.

Michaels moved up on an infield out and scored on reserve catcher Don Wheeler's single.

The Sox were within an out of taking the first game and Max Surkont was only that far away from when the Tigers surged to capture winning his first start of the year the opener.

Surkont walked Vic Wertz with two down in the ninth. Hoot Evers followed with a single to put men on first and third. Then Clyde Shoun came in to face pinch hitter Bob Swift. A roller to shortstop was bobbled by Appling to allow the tying run to score, and Johnny Groth drove home the winning run on a single to center.

The Sox had gained their 2-1 edge that was carried into the ninth on a trio of sixth inning singles by Gordon Goldsberry, Appling, and Michaels and the wild throw of Johnny Lipon in serving as a pivot man on a double play.

Youngsters adore peanut butter frosting on cookies or cake. To prepare it, cream a quarter cup of margarine with a quarter cup of peanut butter until the mixture is extremely well blended and fluffy. Add a cup of confectioners' sugar, beating well after each addition. Thin to a good spreading consistency with about 4 teaspoons of water, adding a teaspoon at a time and beating well. Decorate the frosted cupcakes or cookies with peanut halves.

Average Speed For 500 Mile Run Is 221.377; Johnny Parsons Second

Indianapolis, May 30 — (AP) — For tune rode alongside jubilant Billy Holland in the 500-mile automobile race today.

Holland, 41-year-old driver of the Indianapolis motor speedway with record-breaking speed to win in 4 hours, 7 minutes, 15.97 seconds. He averaged 121.377 miles an hour, fastest time in the 33-year history of the event.

This performance blotted out the track record of 119.813 miles an hour established by Mauri Rose, South Bend, Ind., a three-time winner, in winning the 1948 race.

Holland won with five miles to spare.

Closest to the Holland, winner of about $45,000, was Johnny Parsons, Burbank, Calif., with George Connor, Los Angeles, third. Myron Fohr, of Milwaukee, a first time driver in the event, finished fourth. Fifth was Jole Chitwood, Cherokee Indian from Reading, Pa.

Holland, who finished second to Rose in the 1947 and 1948 races, took two years to hit the Jack-pot. The ill-luck that cost Holland the victory in the 1947 race when he misjudged a signal from his pit crew fell today to his teammate, Rose, who was forced to quit 20 miles from the finish when his engine stalled on the southwest turn and refused to run. The car had to be dragged off the track.

Rose, seeking his third consecutive triumph, was in second place at the time.

While the ultimate plaudits of the holiday crowd of around 150,000 went to Holland, the real thrills of the race were supplied in the first 100 miles when three drivers were involved in smashups.

The most seriously injured was Duke Nalon of Los Angeles, who set a record-breaking pace for the first 50 miles. His car plowed into a retaining wall on the outside of the track on the northeast turn and burst into flames. Nalon quickly jumped out of the blazing car but suffered painful second degree burns about the arms and face.

The other two drivers miraculously escaped without serious injuries. The race had not gone five miles before the car driven by George Lynch of Detroit spun off the track at the dangerous south turn and crashed. Lynch suffered a broken ankle.

Charles Van Acker, veteran driver from South Bend, Ind., escaped without injury when his car crashed

ISLAND OF ESCAPE

By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

THE STORY: Bea Cosgrove, unsatisfied that one of her companions on Spruce Island, Lily Warren, committed suicide, has been carrying on an investigation. Henry Gough Harding, owner of the island, has told her his reasons for wanting to escape the world and establish a "New Eden." He has been in search of a woman like his mother, he says, and wishes to create a "living monument" to her. Harding asks Bea if it would be wise to ask Mollie Stark to be his wife. Mollie, shipwrecked here a few days before, seems to Bea to be dim-witted and mercenary, but it is obvious she has Harding under her thumb. Bea conceals her thoughts and tells Harding he must answer the question himself. As Bea leaves Harding she passes through Mollie's room. Mollie sneers at her.

XXXV. MABEL JONES had outdone herself in the production of indestructible pancakes, and the breakfast bacon still held traces of mold on the raw spots between chargs.

Harding stood up at last. "I'd like to talk to you, Miss Stark," he said. He smiled at her and the smile remained forgotten on his face.

Mollie jumped to her feet. "Well I don't want to talk to you! I won't talk to you. Not after what you've done!" She raced to the tower room and slammed the door behind her.

Harding strode from the room in silence. Mabel Jones began clearing away, rattling dishes to cover Nona's humming of "Happy Days Are Here Again."

Bea Cosgrove found him at the sheep pen, arms resting on the barrier. He looked at her blankly.

"How many sheep are there supposed to be?" she asked.

"There were 20," he said. "Miss Cosgrove, what's the matter with this morning? I don't understand it. I wanted to talk to her, ask her to marry me, and she acts like she did. Do you know what ails her?"

"She's jealous. She was awake when I came down from the tower last night. She saw me."

"But we didn't do anything to make her jealous!"

"Does she know that? She saw me coming down. Have you ever taken her up there?"

"Of course not!" Harding snapped. "I wouldn't ask a girl like Mollie to go alone to my room!"

Bea let it pass. "Well that's what ails her."

"Jealous!" Henry Harding said. "So that's it!" He beamed. His chest expanded. "The poor girl. Why that's wonderful." He hurried toward the house.

FRED SILWELL sauntered around the room, made his way eventually to stand beside Bea Cosgrove at the front window.

"Well?" he said softly.

At the table when she had given Silwell a covert signal, she had determined to let his acuteness control her future actions. If he made an opportunity to talk to her, she would follow a certain path.

"I think I have something for you."

"Spill it," Fred said.

"Meet me in the storeroom, by the funicular early in the morning. Daylight."

At dawn she slipped on her dress, carried her shoes in her hand as she went silently down the stairs and around the house to the storeroom entrance.

Fred Silwell waited for her. "This better be good," he snapped. "Go ahead. What you got to show me? We have to be quick before the others are up and about."

"It doesn't matter if they are," Bea said. She put on her shoes. "As long as they didn't see us come down here, it'd be better if they're all stirring."

"What're you going to do?"

"Blow all the alibis sky high," she answered.

"How?"

"First help me load a few pieces of rock in this car."

Stillwell looked at the gondola of the funicular. "I don't get it," he said. Bea did not answer.

When they had put a half dozen pieces of rock in the gondola both were dripping.

Miss Cosgrove took hold of the starting lever, as she had seen Harding do. She hesitated, then moved it. The car moved silently out into the growing night. She held her breath until it dipped over the steeper part of the incline and disappeared from sight. She knew it could still be seen from above, or from the upper windows. Anyone's idle curiosity, or a chance look in the right direction could spoil her plan.

"I didn't come here to watch the little cars run," Fred snarled. "And your pal Harding'll be sore if he sees you playing with his train."

"Yes," she admitted. "If he sees."

"But it's in plain sight."

"Wait," she ordered. They stood in silence until the other car popped over the edge and moved silently toward them. There was a sharp click as it hit the automatic block. The lever moved by itself. The car stopped. "All right," Fred said slowly. "It stops itself."

We Try To Help-No Miracles Performed!

By Cecil Tendick

Scientific sociology often must give way to ordinary, down-to-earth thinking, says Major Henri Servais, Salvation Army officer who is now in charge of the Morgan county department of probation. His assistant in both fields of work is Mrs. Wanda Moore.

The major opened the local probation office on the second floor of the courthouse several weeks ago, but it will "take three months to organize the system so it runs smoothly," he observed.

"There aren't two cases alike. Each case must be studied individually and often we meet situations that aren't in the book."

"The guide is learning that men and women, boys and girls, who have been placed on probation like to report their activities."

"They like to feel that somebody is interested in them, somebody who will listen to them and help them."

get back on the right road. Some openly seek guidance."

The major is using a simplified merit system plan which he worked out about 22 years ago and has improved as time goes on.

The system works on a quarterly basis. Complete rehabilitation would earn 130 points in the 13 weeks. A perfect quarter would change report periods to once every two weeks. Another clean card would necessitate reports only once a month and a third one would prompt the major to go into the courtroom, where he would request the judge for a formal order releasing the probationer.

Drinking and refusal to work are bad marks, each knock 10 points off the possible score. Absence from school costs two points the first time, more later. Failure to report or to attend church are also penalized. And if the total number of points earned slips before the 100 mark the major will take the case before the judge, recommend revocation of probation and the commencement of a prison sentence.

Duties Varied
Duties of the probation officer include investigation of complaints, pre-hearing investigations, supervision, unofficial voluntary probation cases and the performance of special court orders.

The major is most pleased when he can stop an individual delinquency before it gets too far, before it leads to arrest and trial. Sometimes this involves bringing in the parents of children in handicapped homes.

"Staying out too late is the most prevalent violation of probationary rules," the major observed. "And in nearly all cases it is the direct fault of the parents."

"I have no magic wand. I just try to discharge my duties as a representative of the court and to guide those who have lost their way," the major concluded.

Sound Relationship Between Two Worlds Urged By Cong. Judd

"The plainest, most fundamental fact in the world today," declared the Cong. Walter H. Judd, of Minnesota, in his address Sunday afternoon at the MacMurray college commencement, "is that we have not 'one world,' but two.

"The world is split right down the middle—economically, politically, ideologically and spiritually. The realization of this fact is the beginning of wisdom," he contended.

Continuing, he said "The two worlds must become one. It is inconceivable that the two can exist indefinitely" under present pressures and circumstances.

Cites Two Methods

There are two ways in which the worlds can be united. One is by conquest, adherence to the Stalinist theory that ultimately one or the other must conquer. The other is by teamwork, achieving an agreeable relationship between the two worlds.

Dr. Judd placed the issue squarely before his audience by asking "Is there the slightest possibility that the hardboiled men in the Kremlin and their fanatical devotees in almost every other land, including our own, will abandon their ideas and their objectives and accept ours? Clearly, not.

"Will we or a substantial portion of the people of the other western nations which are still free, voluntarily abandon our ideas, our values, our objectives and become Communists? No, indeed!"

He stated further "It is not necessary" to become alike in order to be able to get along in peace and with mutual benefit. In fact, teamwork usually means bringing together and integrating the unlike, not the like.

Advantages to Both
"Our key task today," he maintained, "is to try to get a set of circumstances where common acceptance of certain mutually agreed-upon rules of behavior will provide greater advantage for both the Communist world and the free world, then either can hope to gain by continued disagreement or by attempted conquest."

The United States has tried two methods to achieve this objective— isolation and appeasement. Both have failed.

The five-point program which the United States is now pursuing was outlined by the speaker: (1) Rebuilding enough of our scrapped military strength to fulfill our commitments overseas and to meet any probable emergencies or dangers; (2) Persistence to any further spread in Europe of the glacier of tyranny moving out of the Soviet Union; (3) assistance on a basis of mutual cooperation to certain European nations struggling to recover their economic stability; (4) a mutual defense program—the North Atlantic Treaty; and (5) giving the whole world a more adequate and accurate presentation of America.

Clears Way For Step Six
Adherence to these five points, asserted Dr. Judd, will enable us to take a sixth, all-important, step that of moving "boldly and imaginatively" to try to strengthen the world organization so that it can handle effectively all threats to peace from whatever source."

This can be done, said Dr. Judd, not by abandoning the United Nations, but by strengthening it. "We must get its structure modified so that it can and will work—with Russian cooperation, if possible, but without it, if necessary."

In the concluding remarks of his address, given before a crowd of more than 500, Dr. Judd stated "Our difficulties are not insurmountable if we can develop here and among the other free peoples a sense of mission, a moral compulsion to build in the world the sort of order which our forefathers, had the will to build in these United States."

Introduced By President
Representative Judd was introduced by President C. P. McClelland. The exercises opened with the "March Processional" by the college band, under the direction of Henry E. Busche, and the impressive entrance of the graduating class. The national anthem was sung by the audience and invocation was offered by the Rev. J. R. Ford, D.D. The class hymn was sung by the seniors, followed with a selection by the choir.

President McClelland presented his report following Dr. Judd's address. Conferring of degrees and announcement of honors then took place. The audience sang "Alma Mater."

Globe Theatre Nears Completion At I.C.

By Mary Ellen Broge

A portable model of the Globe theatre, an Elizabethan playhouse made famous by William Shakespeare, is nearing completion at Illinois College under the direction of the English and drama departments.

The model will measure three feet high and three feet across when completed. To the modern playgoer, familiar with the seating arrangements and the picture-frame stage of the present, the Globe seems more like a stadium than a theatre.

Polygonal Wooden Structure
Shakespeare's playhouse was a polygonal wooden structure of galleries surrounding an open court into the middle of which projected a partly covered platform. The audience stood, rather than sat, around this platform, although the more wealthy personages were seated in the galleries or even on the stage itself.

Most of the action of an Elizabethan play took place upon the platform, which had no curtain and was backed on each side by the actors' dressing rooms. These "tiring-houses" were built to give the illusion of a house fronting a street, fire in 1613 during a performance of which the platform often stood, "Henry VIII," when, at the entry of the king, the tower cannon was shot and between the entrance doors of and some of the powder set fire were two annexes to the platform to the thatched roof below.

Knowledge of the earlier theatres which could be brought into use if necessary; and directly above this is necessary for sound interpretation alone, an upper stage for scenes of earlier drama, and at the same requiring elevation (such as the well-known balcony scenes in "Romeo and Juliet"). Both the inner and upper stages were fitted with curtains which could be closed when the annexes were not in use.

Thatched Roof Planned
When finished, the I.C. model will have a thatched roof, a front section to complete the polygon and a thatched roof topped by a tower, which originally housed a small cannon.

Most of the work on the replica has been done by Alvin Miller, a sophomore from Tucuman, N. Mex. Albert Monyk, sophomore from Elizabeth, N.J., and Ronald Allyn, sophomore from Hamilton, have also contributed their time and effort.

The original Globe was built in 1599 just outside of London. Shakespeare himself acted upon its stage and later became part owner of it. The playhouse was destroyed by fire in 1613 during a performance of which the platform often stood, "Henry VIII," when, at the entry of the king, the tower cannon was shot and between the entrance doors of and some of the powder set fire were two annexes to the platform to the thatched roof below.
